

PROMISE BOATS TO SEA SCOUTS

Boats for the troop of Sea Scouts to be organized in El Paso, will be secured before the summer, according to the present outlook.

Lieut. J. H. Hupp, who has interested himself in organizing the sea scouts, is in receipt of a letter from the navy department, division of navigation, stating that the boats will be furnished in all possibility if the local council of the Boy Scouts makes a request for them. The request was forwarded Friday.

The boats will be located on Lake El Paso, at Elephant Butte, where there is a 200-horse power plant.

Lieut. Hupp will be assisted in his work with the Sea Scouts by Lieut. S. J. Tracht, U. S. N., retired, and by J. K. Robinson, a former coast guard officer.

The Sea Scout work is confined to boys 15 years and over and the Sea Scouts will be recruited in El Paso principally among high school boys.
